Lovers of Trotting.

Everything was in perfect order at Fleetwood Park this morning for the opening to day of the Grand Circuit meeting of the Driving Club of New York.

For four days the speedlest and sleekest of trotters will contend for glory and gold. Quartered at the park are fully 100 of the innest specimens of trotting stock in the country, all in fine fettle.

The track is in capital condition and conducive to record breaking. All that is needed is fine weather.

With a clear sky and soft, balmy autumnal breezes tempering the atmosphere, Fleetwood Park will have within its inclosure thousands and thousands of lovers of rapid horseflesh during the next four days.

Purses to the amount of $1.6,000 are hung up for the trotters. The track has understond and the crucible, heated it over the gas and twonderfully, especially for sneed.
